

Personnal Feud Continues Between Keen, Al Gunter

Neil Keen of Pasadena and Al Gunter of Los Angeles, hottest motorcycle riders of the Pacific Coast this summer, continue their personal feud tomorrow night at Ascot Park as the two-wheeling season moves into the 19th week of a 32-week campaign.

This is the most successful season for the motorcycles in Ascot's racing history, and director J. C. Agajanian has a ready answer: "We're giving the fans the best racing in the United States, and they're coming back week after week. No other track in the country can offer the riders or the competition we present every Friday night."

Hoskinson Hurls Two Hit Victory

Billy Hoskinson outdueled Billy Ernst, giving up only two hits to Ernst's three as the Braves remained in contention for the second half Tordondo Little League championship by slipping past the Yankees 2 to 0.

Erupting for 17 hits, and backed by the 10 strikeout performance of Joel Hons, the Indians swept to a 15 to 6 victory over the White Sox.

Vernon Bynum went three for four at the plate, Johnny Cairns doubled and singled and Danny Murray swatted a double to pace the 17 hit barrage. Danny Stern went two for four for the losers.

Billy Cooper hurled a no hitter to guide the Seals to a 6 to 0 win over the Angels. Cooper walked one and one Angel took first on an error for the only Angel baserunners of the contest.

Cooper came right back to go the route as the Seals topped the league leading Pirates, 11 to 5. Jon Walker, hitting a phenomenal .679, went three for four, getting a double and two singles for the victors. Danny Roznoski got two hits in four at-bats for the Seals.

MIKE MANNION hurled six innings of shutout ball before giving up four runs in the sixth inning as the Phils swamped the Padres, 13 to 4. In a battle of sluggers, the
